

Promotion and Tenure Committee
Report to the Faculty Senate
May 3, 2019

Committee Members: Tom Kiddie (AH), Raphael Mutepa (PS), Rob Harris (NSM), Gail Mosby (BSS), Emily Waugh (AL), Manashi Ray (AL)
Dr. Ray and Dr. Mosby were on leave.

The committee reviewed nine portfolios: three were seeking tenure and promotion to Associate Professor and six were applying for promotion to the rank of Professor. Portfolios and letters of evaluation were forwarded from the deans to the committee chair. The documents and were stored in a secure room in the office of the Dean of Natural Sciences and Mathematics. Committee members were subsequently given access to the documents by the chair or office staff.

All nine candidates were recommended by their dean. Seven were recommended by their department chair (the other two were department chairs)

Candidate affiliation:

1	AH	Art	tenure/ promotion to Associate Professor
2	PS	Social Work	tenure/ promotion to Associate Professor
3	NSM	-----	tenure/ promotion to Associate Professor
4	PS	CJ	promotion to Professor
5	NSM	Biology	promotion to Research Professor
6	BSS	PolSci	promotion to Professor
7	AH	English	promotion to Professor
8	AH	English	promotion to Professor
9	NSM	Math	promotion to Professor

The committee's final meeting was held on February 1st and all requested actions were unanimously supported by the committee. These recommendations were communicated to the Provost and the Chair of the Faculty Senate on February 1st. All portfolios and documents were subsequently delivered by the committee chair to the Office of Academic Affairs. The chair summarized the committee's evaluation and recommendation in a memorandum to each candidate.

The committee has no unfinished business.

Respectfully submitted,
Rob Harris (chair)