

MARSHALL UNIVERSITY

JOAN C. EDWARDS SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

WHAT IS MEDICAL SCHOOL AND I HOW DO I PREPARE FOR IT?

- How to prepare for medical school and after medical school.
- The important factors for success.
- The “myths”, who goes to medical school and who does not?
- Current medical students discuss their preparation for medical school, and medical student life.

Tuesday February 22, 2011, Hamblin Auditorium at 12:30 pm

Presented by:

Dr. Charles W. Clements, M.D.

Professor – Department of Family and Community Health

Program Director – Wilderness medicine

Marshall University Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine

Alice A. Hensley

Fourth Year Medical Student

Mary T. Sale

Fourth Year Medical Student

They will have lunch with interested students in the cafeteria starting at 11:30. Come pick their brains about how to get into medical school and life once you successfully are admitted.