

Columbia History Student

70 Morningside Drive (1234) | New York, NY 10027
(212) 123-4567 | css1234@columbia.edu

EDUCATION

Columbia University, Columbia College, New York, NY, Expected May 2020

Bachelor of Arts in History; GPA: 3.7

Honors Thesis: "Mapping the Nuyorican Labor Movement, 1930–1970"

Relevant Coursework: US Labor History; Immigrant New York; American Radicalism; Culture, Memory, and Crisis in Modern US History; Censorship and Freedom of Expression in Post-War United States

GRANTS AND HONORS

Edwin Robbins Summer Research Fellowship, Columbia University, 2019

Dean's List, Columbia University, 2017–2019

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

Labor History; Class and Politics in 20th-Century America; Latinx History; Mapping; Media and Memory; Journalistic History of America

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Columbia University, History Department, New York, NY

Independent Researcher, May 2019 – Present

Advisor: Professor Professor

Conduct research on the history of Nuyorican labor movement from 1930 to 1970, with focus on journalistic and other archival sources.

Houghton Mifflin Company, New York, NY

Editorial Intern, May – August 2018

Researched and wrote reference articles on diverse topics in American history.

New York Historical Society, New York, NY

High School Research Program Intern, June – August 2016

Researched issues in New York City history; selected writers for publications and exhibits.

PRESENTATIONS

"Working Class in New York in the 1930s." Poster presented at the American Historical Association Convention. Chicago, IL, January 2019.

"An Analysis of Recent New York Mayoral Campaigns." Poster presented at the Columbia Undergraduate Research Symposium. New York, NY, October 2018.

LEADERSHIP

Columbia University Undergraduate History Council

Committee Officer, September 2017 – Present

Guide members in finding a research position and throughout the research projects' progression. Organize events to expose members to different kinds of history research and alumni career paths.

Columbia University Debate Union

President, Committee Officer, Workshops Lead, September 2016 – Present

Lead team of up to 12 members to local, regional, and national debate competitions. Coordinate practices and trip organization alongside faculty mentor. Design and teach debate workshops to high school students during summer months.

CU Women in Law and Politics

Events Committee Officer, September 2015 – Present

Record meeting notes and correspond with collaboration organizations. Organize events to unite local students interested in law and politics. Conduct outreach to local NYC politicians to serve as guest speakers throughout the year.

MEMBERSHIPS

American Historical Association (2017 – Present)

Latino Studies Association (2018 – Present)

LANGUAGES

Near-native proficiency in Spanish; Reading and basic speaking competence in French

SKILLS

Data analysis and visualization in Excel and Tableau