Undergraduate international students on the F-1 visa must take a minimum of 12 credits each term (fall and spring) to maintain their visa status. Summer term is optional; however, if you take summer classes, there will be additional expenses for tuition and books. Average WVSU courses are three credits, and undergraduate students may take up to 18 credits each term without additional tuition cost. Some individual classes may have course fees, which varies from term to term.

Room & Meals (on campus) $13,066 academic year (double occupancy room with meal plans)

Health Insurance $700 (estimated for 12 months)

Miscellaneous Expenses $4,256 (estimated books, supplies, travel, and personal expenses)

Estimated (I-20) Total $32,827 (Your Affidavit of Support must show the minimum of this amount)

- There is a one-time new student orientation fee of $100.
- The above figures are meant to serve as guidelines and are subject to change. In order to obtain a student visa, you must prove that you will be supported fully for your entire course of study. Payment for each semester is expected in full prior to the start of classes.
- F-1 students enrolled at WVSU are required to have medical insurance that is compliant with the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act at a Gold Level or higher. You must plan on this expense.
- Limited on-campus employment opportunities are available. For off-campus opportunities through CPT and OPT, Please see an advisor in the Office of International Affairs (OIA). Please be aware that there are strict restrictions on international student employment in the U.S.
- WVSU has a two-year on-campus residency requirement for all freshmen. WVSU requires that all freshman and sophomore single students enrolled for twelve (12) or more semester credit hours reside in the University's residence halls and participate in a meal plan. This requirement excludes summer sessions and is applicable until the attainment of junior academic standing (58 credit hours), or the receipt of an exemption from the Office Residence Life. Single students wishing to live on-campus for more than two years are welcome and encouraged to do so.
- All international applications are processed in a timely fashion. Your application for admission and supporting credentials should be submitted as early as possible to allow us sufficient time to process your application and for you to obtain your visa and arrange for travel to the U.S.
- All new students including international students are required to arrive in WVSU before each term starts to participate in the mandatory New Student Orientation (NSO). The OIA also conducts the new international student orientation every spring and fall terms.
